The Wimbledon Club

Welcome to The Wimbledon Club.

Owned by its members, The Wimbledon Club is one of London's premier private sports clubs with sections for squash, tennis, cricket, hockey and a fitness suite.

The squash section has been voted London Club of Year and is one of very few clubs nationally to hold Gold Status for the England Squash Club Mark, the highest accolade a club can be awarded by its national governing body.

The club house comprises a first floor bar and restaurant with surrounding balconies overlooking the tennis courts, cricket field and lake. There are extensive changing rooms, shower facilities with a sauna and a treatment room which can be found downstairs.

The Squash section is overseen by the squash committee chaired by Tom Goulden and directed by Stacey Ross.

There are 5 courts; 4 glass-backed and one enclosed. There is a rolling refurbishment programme in place to keep the courts in pristine condition at all times.

The senior and junior programmes and the coaching staff are managed by the Director of Squash, Stacey Ross.

Junior Coaching Programme

Junior Squash Training

The Wimbledon Club operates the largest junior coaching programme in London and the South East, welcoming children who have never played squash before into fun and enjoyable streamed stages of development.

Junior group coaching sessions run for approximately 32 weeks of the year and are included in the membership fee.

Subject to availability, a junior member is able to either join in our Friday afternoon/evening squash sessions or our Saturday morning/afternoon squash sessions, where children are placed together according to age and ability.

Sessions are delivered as a mixture of coaching, drills and competitive fun games maximising enjoyment of the game and providing a fun and social environment for all who attend.

Girls Squash

Along with England Squash, TWC is passionate about girls in sport and for this reason actively recruits and encourages girls to participate in squash which is widely recognised as a male dominated activity.

Inspired by campaigns such as 'This Girl Can' and 'This Squash Girl Can', TWC introduced the first girls-only training session in 2015, and it has since grown into one of the fundamental areas of the junior squash section.

Junior squash girls can attend a Girls Squad session on a Friday plus a Saturday coaching session to give them maximum opportunities to play.

In September 2018 we hosted our first Girls Squash Fun Tournament which was designed to allow girls to play competitive matches in a controlled environment without the added pressure of ranking points. The next tournament will be held in November 2019.

Holiday Camps

Every new junior squash member who pays a joining fee receives a day on a junior squash camp worth £34 - camps take place every school break.
